

START TICKING OFF YOUR BUCKET LIST

The world is full of foreign lands to discover, treasures to tick off and things to do (and eat). But the bucket list is where true, once-in-a-lifetime holidays belong – the kind that take your breath away and make your skin tingle, that take you to the farthest, most remote reaches of the Earth and make you feel alive. Exploring Milford Sound, seeing the most Southern Lights of NZ on Stewart Island or heading to the comparative remote Catlins... this is bucket list material. So is sleeping in a real life castle, chartering a private yacht around the Abel Tasman . Your journey starts here. Start ticking off your bucket list in style.

STEWART ISLAND

30 kms South of the South Island. Unspoiled, incredibly beautiful & steeped in stories. So few people have visited the island that the wildlife are still tame and the kiwis so numerous its almost guaranteed to see one on a tour.
