

CHRISTCHURCH, BLENHEIM, NELSON & THE WEST COAST

Highlights

- Choose your designated driver and target taking lunch at any one of the fine wineries on SH1 near Waipara.
- Kaikoura, best known for whale watching but equally well known for a good “feed” of crays! Pick up a snack at Nin’s Bin located on one of the most spectacular roads in the world.
- At Ward take the detour to the Ward Beach Boulders and see the K-T Boundary. This was exposed in the 2016 earthquake and signifies the event which led to the extinction of dinosaurs. Rocks here are said to be 65million years old!
- Blenheim, wine country where families from Champagne (Daniel Le Brun’s No 1 vineyard) and the Loire (Clos Henri) make these French inspired wines but with a Kiwi twist.
- Havelock, famous for mussels but more so for Sir Ernest Rutherford who started school here as did Sir William Pickering, who pioneered space exploration. See the NASA memorial in town.
- Half way between Blenheim and Nelson is the Pelorus Bridge where the Hobbit scene was filmed featuring 13 dwarves and Bilbo Baggins escaping captivity in barrels.
- For over 40yrs the Nelson Market has gained a worldwide reputation – from fresh fruit to high quality arts & crafts. Plan your trip so as not to miss this market.
- The views from the Hope Saddle on SH6 over the Nelson Lakes and the Kahurangi Mountains are breath taking.
- Follow the Buller River through the earthquake riven landscapes on the road to the lower Buller Gorge
- The Pancake Rocks at Punakaiki are the drawcard but get down on the beach at low tide.
- Greymouth, apart from being the Greenstone Capital of NZ is also home to Monteith’s Brewery. Great for lunch or just to take the tour...or call us to do both.
- Near Arthurs Pass Village take time to walk to the Devils Punchbowl for a picnic before continuing to Christchurch. The whitebait sandwiches at Jackson’s Hotel are fantastic!
