Travel 01/30 April 2023, 5 day / 4 night Abel Tasman Guided Walk $2249 per person share twin .

Comfortable walking shoes or sports sandals are recommended. Heavy hiking boots are not necessary on the well-formed coastal track. You can wear them if you prefer. Quick-dry and thermal fibres are recommended for walking and in the cooler months (April - September), bring extra thermal layers, socks and warm wool or polarfleece jacket and waterproof jacket with hood.

The Abel Tasman

Abel Tasman National Park located in the Nelson/Tasman area is renowned for its golden beaches, sculptured granite cliffs and its world-famous coast track. Enjoy the mild climate, golden beaches & experience the Abel Tasman coast track that follows a pristine coastline of extraordinary beauty, clear, turquoise bays, abundant bird and sea life and the fresh, clean air that surrounds you as you walk under the shady canopy of lush native forest from Totaranui to Kaiteriteri. There's time aplenty to relax, walk, kayak, and explore parts of the National Park many visitors don't get to see. Enjoy two nights at each of the beachfront lodges at Torrent Bay and Meadowbank Homestead at Awaroa, ideally spaced for civilised adventure along the Abel Tasman National Park Coast Track, one of New Zealand's Great Walks. The walking track is managed and maintained to a very high standard by the Department of Conservation. It is well-formed and heavy hiking boots are not necessary.
