Dart River Wilderness Experience Highlights

- A 60 minute spectacular lake edge transfer from your Queenstown accommodation to Glenorchy at the head of Lake Whakatipu
- Take a spectacular helicopter flight over Lake Whakatipu and the Dart Valley, before beginning a stunning walk through ancient beech forest into Mount Aspiring National Park – a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- Stroll under a canopy of native forest located between the Dart and Routeburn river valleys, where birdsong provides nature's soundtrack.
- You'll then enjoy a jetboat journey across the clear waters of the Dart River into Te Wāhīpounamu World Heritage Area, covering up to 90km of river and back to Glenorchy.
- Disembark your jet boat in this spectacular national park for an enlightening guided walk. Hear about flora, fauna and history. Learn about the Pounamu (Greenstone) that made the Dart River a key trading route for early Māori.
- After a delicious lunch in Glenorchy, finish the day with breathtaking views of Lake Whakatipu on the Bob's Cove walk.
- Then after what promises to be a day to remember it's back to your accommodation in Queenstown
