Highlights

- In Thames, run off the calories from the Chocolate Shoppe by attacking the Rainbow Steps, a stunning paint job on what was formerly just a concrete set of stairs.
- East of Thames is the Kauaeranga Valley, a base for great walks and the site of a working Kauri Dam.
- The Rapaura Watergardens on the Tapu-Coroglen Rd is a worthwhile detour to Tranquility.
- The Marine Reserve at Hahei leads on to the coastal walk to majestic Cathedral Cove and then to Cooks Beach where the famous captain observed the Transit of Mercury.
- The visit to Hobbiton will drop you right into the Lord of the Rings and Hobbit Trilogies. This calls for a pint and a “second breakfast” at the Green Dragon Inn.
- Tirau, a must stop town full of arts and crafts where you might also pick up a treasure from their myriad antique shops.
- In Rotorua, apart from the included attractions, take a walk through the Redwood Forest.
- Time your drive to Taupo to coincide with the opening of the dam gates on the Atiamuri Dam and rapids at 10am, 12pm, 2pm or 4pm (Summer). Look but don’t swim as it’s not safe.
- After your jetboat ride, stand over the bridge at the Huka Falls to be awed by the river’s power.
- The lake & volcanic views on the scenic route from Taupo to Waiouru along the Desert Rd are stunning.
- Taumarunui with the Forgotten World Highway, the Bridge to Nowhere and lunch at Lauren’s Lavender Farm beside the Whanganui River will make you want to stay.
- You’ll be richly rewarded after a 2 hour drive North of Taumarunui with Sanctuary Mountain Maungatautari, an ecological island where you’ll find native wildlife, plants and great walking trails. With 2 nights accommodation here, you’ll have plenty of time to connect with the space & surroundings.
