FORGOTTEN WORLD ADVENTURES

Drive your own rail-cart along 77 km of abandoned railway line through spectacular scenery!

Abandoned since 2009, the rail line with its 24 tunnels and 90 plus bridges, all hand-built, traverses the Forgotten World, the name given to one of New Zealand's most beautiful, remote, yet seldom seen regions. Forgotten World Adventures are experts in guided experiences throughout this spectacular destination in the Central North Island.

The region is steeped in history and cultural significance; immerse yourself in passionate storytelling about the early settlers and hardy pioneers whilst venturing through backcountry ghost towns, pristine native bush, rugged hills and deep hidden valleys. Enjoy a front row seat as you weave through the breathtaking, ever-changing landscape and feel magically disconnected from the pace of everyday life. Your journey also includes a jet boat ride along the majestic Whanganui River, a helicopter flight over the Whanganui National Park and visits to the iconic Whangamōmona Hotel and Bridge to Nowhere amongst other historic landmarks and attractions. Discover the people and places history left behind, be transported to a bygone era bursting with intrigue and embark on one of the most authentic and enchanting experiences New Zealand has to offer
