5 Days from $5399 per person share twin

On this exhilarating 5-day getaway, your private guides will share with you the most beautiful hikes, the freshest meals, and the most extraordinary locations where few get to go. The High Country Escape will transport you into a World Heritage Park, taking in the diverse landscape of an ancient beech forest, braided rivers, and glacier-carved valleys. You'll explore a historical high country station, hike on the famous Routeburn Track, and journey deep into Mt Aspiring National Park – all with a local expert guide by your side and the tranquil Headwaters Eco Lodge as your home base. Feed your soul and experience some of New Zealand's most stunning landscapes. Treat your body to delectable food and drink and optional yoga and gentle stretching classes each morning. In the evenings, listen to fascinating short stories on topics you can select from: our unique flora and fauna, southern sky star gazing, local artwork on site, sustainable design, or meet with a local geologist or historian - whatever topic you fancy. Our legendary personal service each day promises to create a getaway that is unique and memorable. Come discover just how warm and welcoming time away in nature can be.

Day 1 : Enjoy a scenic Queenstown pick-up that leads to a Glenorchy experience. After a breathtaking 2-3km lakeside walk at Bob's Cove, you'll reach The Headwaters Eco Lodge. Settle in your ensuite room, explore unique New Zealand art, and prepare for a group tour. Evenings feature pre-dinner drinks, a gourmet dinner with local cuisine, and tailored programs, ensuring an inspiring experience.
